

Lesson 14

Accountable In Oakland
Community Practice Studio I(200) and II(300)

The Studio/Practice Center, 940 Arlington No. 4, Oakland CA 94608

Assessment - as reflection and action

Friday 12/16/2016 9:00AM - 03:00PM

Description: Dialogue individually with each student and as a group about the Graduate Student Assessment Form to assess our time together this semester. Complete course evaluations from CCA, final evaluations, and personal community definition artwork as a way to reflect and act on ideas of community and collaboration.

Understanding Goals:

- How can looking deeply through creativity and dialogue with others help to refine our understanding about Community?
- How has study, participation, and creation this semester changed my understanding of art and community?

Aims:

- A) Students self assess using graduate school evaluation form
- B) Peer review Accountable In Oakland Course Experience individually with each student
- C) Archiving Course Materials, de installing the Studio Practice Center
- D) Have participants complete CCA assessments on line.
- E) Discuss experiences of collaboration and community
- F) Compile a binder of your work for this class
- G) Practice Mindfulness

Materials: Final Assessment Sheet Completed SFAI Assessment
Rubric Art Materials Community Encyclopedia

Methods:

A.) Mindfulness Exercise	15 minutes
B.) Check in	15 minutes
C.) Review course and understanding goals	20 minutes
D.) Individual Course Evaluation Sessions (12 X 20')	180 minutes
E.) CCA on line course Evaluations
F.) Finishing Assessment Sheet
G.) Contribute to Community Encyclopedia
H.) Mindfulness Exercise/Myth of Separate Self	20 minutes
I.) Brett's Presentation	20 minutes
J.) Closing reflections	20 minutes